Concert Program Book Ad Sales 2009-2010

Dear Prospective Advertiser:

I would like to thank you for taking the time to consider placing an advertisement in the Northwest Indiana Symphony Youth Orchestra's Concert Program Book. It is sponsorships such as yours that will enable me to fund an exciting and enriching music opportunity to travel with the Youth Orchestra this spring. We are currently scheduled to take a trip to visit Indiana University, Butler University and Ball State. On our trip we will also attend performances by the Indianapolis Symphony and the Jacob's School of Music.

The Concert Program Book will contain information about the music, composers, guest artists, donors and other youth orchestra related information and programs. The Concert Program Book is a successful advertising media for individuals and area businesses to communicate to the community that they that support the hard working, talented youth in the orchestra.

Advertising is available in black and white at full-page, half-page or business card rates. A special two line message is also available and will provide great reading before each concert. Your ad will be printed in May 16th Concert Program Book. In order to be included in the May Program Book, we must have your Ad and payment by April 1, 2010.

Thank you for investing in this worthwhile cause. We will make every attempt to provide a quality product at a reasonable price.

Best Regards,
